

A Statement from the Archbishop Hughes at the start of Hurricane Season

May 31, 2007

The Catholic Bishops of the State of Louisiana have designated Friday, June 1 a day of Prayer and Penance as we begin a new hurricane season. We join with people of all faiths in begging God to spare us and to keep all people safe from severe storms.