

Protecting travelers — every step of the way

TravelAid services are a valuable addition to an employers' group benefits program. Custom tailored to a company's needs, TravelAid can provide employees and their dependents with a layer of protection for both personal and business travel.

No matter if a member is 100 miles or over 5,000 miles away from home, TravelAid is available around the clock and the world to ensure assistance when they need help the most — whether it's a medical emergency or simply replacing travel documents.*
